SUNDAY REFLECTION

13th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Your faith has made you well; go in peace and be healed." — Mark 5:34

God, who formed us in His imperishable image, did not intend for us to die, we hear in today's First Reading. Death entered the world through the devil's envy and Adam and Eve's sin; as a result, we are all bound to die.

But in the moving story in today's Gospel, we see Jesus liberate a little girl from the possession of death.

On one level, Mark is recounting an event that led the disciples to understand Jesus' authority and power over even the final enemy, death (see 1 Corinthians 15:26). On another level, however, this episode is written to strengthen our hope that we too will be raised from the dead, along with all our loved ones who sleep in Christ (see 1 Corinthians 15:18).

Jesus commands the girl to "Arise!"— using the same Greek word used to describe His own resurrection (see Mark 16:6). And the consoling message of today's Gospel is that Jesus is the resurrection and the life. If we believe in Him, even though we die, we will live (see John 15:25–26).

We are called to have the same faith as the parents in the Gospel today—praying for our loved ones, trusting in Jesus' promise that even death cannot keep us apart. Notice the parents follow Him even though those in their own house tell them there is no hope, and even though others ridicule Jesus' claim that the dead have only fallen asleep (see 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18).

Already in Baptism, we've been raised to new life in Christ. And the Eucharist, like the food given to the little girl today, is the pledge that He will raise us on the last day.

We should rejoice, as we sing in today's Psalm, that He has brought us up from the netherworld, the pit of death. And, as Paul exhorts in today's Epistle, we should offer our lives in thanksgiving for this gracious act, imitating Christ in our love and generosity for others.

— Reflection by Dr. Scott Hahn,
St. Paul University

CARE FOR CREATION

DIGNITY OF LIFE

In April of this year, the Dicastery for Doctrine of the Faith released “Dignitas Infinita” (Infinite Dignity) that highlights the indispensable nature of the dignity of the human person. A healthy understanding of human dignity is at the heart of a Catholic Christian anthropology and at the foundation of Catholic social teaching.

“Those who are committed to defending human dignity can find in the Christian faith the deepest reasons for this commitment. How wonderful is the certainty that each human life is not adrift in the midst of hopeless chaos, in a world ruled by pure chance or endlessly recurring cycles!

The Creator can say to each one of us: “Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you” (Jer 1:5). We were conceived in the heart of God, and for this reason “each of us is the result of a thought of God. Each of us is willed, each of us is loved, each of us is necessary” (from Laudato Si §65).

Friday, July 12th, 7 - 9 pm

Theme: God, our Healer
Guest speaker: Fr. Ben St. Croix, CC

Fr. Ben of the Companions of the Cross is liaison to the Bishop for the Catholic Charismatic Renewal Services of Ontario (CCRSO) and pastor of St. Maurice church.

OTTAWA PASTORAL CARE TRAINING (Inter-denominational Program): This fall we again are offering the Basic Training Course both in-person (afternoons) and online by Zoom (evenings). Both courses begin Monday, September 16 and run weekly until November 25 (excluding Thanksgiving Monday). Our Fall 2024 Basic Training Course brochure is available at <https://ottawapastoralcare.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/05/Fall-2024-.Basic-Course-Brochure.pdf>

→ We are also presenting a Continuing Education event on Tuesday November 5 from 7—9pm by ZOOM. This session is called 'A Pastoral Response to the Challenges of MAiD' and will explore an approach focusing on compassion, empathy and journeying with patients as they search for meaning in their suffering. The presentation will not condone or condemn MAiD as a treatment option. Instead, it will focus on how pastoral care volunteers can journey with patients, listen to their struggle and assist them with their own meaning around life and death issues. The session will be led by Roshene Lawson, Clinical Chaplain with Bruyère Continuing Care at St. Vincent Hospital in Ottawa. Program brochure link is here: <https://ottawapastoralcare.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/05/Fall-2024.Con-Ed-Brochure.pdf>.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CGS)

The CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD (CGS) program has wrapped up for the year! CGS is a time-tested approach to faith formation that feeds the deepest needs of children, allowing each one to get to know God personally. In a retreat-like atmosphere and through the use of special materials designed just for them, children hear the Word proclaimed and grow in their relationship with God. This year, the Atrium at St. Joseph's House, right beside Holy Spirit Parish, welcomed 8 children. Some will be back and space will open for new children to join as well!

Please consider signing up your child if they are between the ages of 3—5. CGS is unlike any other programs in its approach. Volunteers are always welcome.

If you have any questions, please contact Kim Baudouin at (613) 884-8475.

CGS has a need for growth within this program and that's why Ottawa will once again host a training program for catechists this summer.

This July, HOLY REDEEMER WILL HOST the CGS course forming catechists in the approach to children's catechesis called Catechesis of the Good Shepherd. Two formation leaders from out of town will require a place to stay for four nights, Monday July 22 to Friday July 26 inclusive.

If you can offer separate sleeping arrangements with bathroom access for two women, along with five breakfasts and three or four dinners, please contact the course registrar: Dale (613-225-0988; dale@stmauriceparish.com). Grocery costs for the meals can be reimbursed. Your house guests will be gone daily from before 8AM until after 5PM.
